THROUGH LIFE.

We slight the gifts that every season bears, And let them fall unheeded from our grasp In our eager quest to reach an end. The promised treasure of the coming years. Or else we mourn some great good passed away.

And in the shadows of our grief shut in, Refuse the lesser good we yet might win, The offered peace and gladness of to-day.

So through the chambers of our life we pass, And leave them one by one, and never stay, Not knowing how much pleasantness there was.

In each, until the closing of the door Has sounded through the house, and died away. And in our hearts we sigh, "Forevermore."

Going Home with Sally.

One bright moonlight winter's night in the days of "lang syne," when school-houses, cheap school masters and blue beach-rods were the only instrumentalities used for teaching the "young idea how to shoot" we chanced to attend a "spelling-school" in a rural setting. Also the geographical relation of which is not now necessary to mention. 'Twas there, however, where our eyes first fell on a "fairy form" that immediately set our susceptible heart in a blaze.

She was sixteen or thereabout, with bright eyes, red cheeks and cherry lips, while the auburn ringlets clustered in a wealth of profusion around her beautiful head, and her person, to our ravished imagination, was more perfect in form and outline than the most faultless statue ever chiseled by the sculptor's art. As we gazed, our feelings, which never before had aspired girard (we were scarcely eighteen), were fully aroused, and we determined to go home with her that night or perish in the attempt. As soon, therefore, with apparently as much force as if it were driving tenpenny nails into our ribs! we, in the meantime, having reached Sally's side, managed to mumble over something which is perhaps known to the recording angel, but certainly is not to us, at the same time going out of our wits as to nearly at right angles with our breast as our physical contortion could possibly permit.

The first feeling over, what was our delight to find the object of our love clinging to our arm with all the tenacity of a drowning man is said to clutch a straw. Talk of Elysium, or sliding down greased rainbows, or feeding on fumes, what are such feelings compared with those mighty ones that swelled our bosom high unto bursting of our waistcoat buttons? Our happiness was simply ecstatic, and every young lady or gentleman who has ever felt the mighty throbbings of a newly-plighted love, will understand the common word.

Well, we walked on pleasantly toward Sally's home, conversing very cozily and sweetly as we passed along, until so courageous did we become that we actually proposed to "go and sit awhile" to which our delicate very gracious assented. Also, as we walked, the idea of his sister's having just "been" were we to be reminded that "the course of love never did run smooth."

Sally had a brother of some ten summers, who accompanied us along the way, and who was in wonderful high spirits. The idea of his sister's having a beau, and he would circulate around us, every now and then giggling in the height of his glee, and examining us as closely as if Sally and myself were the world-renowned Siamese twins, and he was taking his first look. Bill, by the way, was a stubbed, chuckle-headed boy, whose habits would have made the fortune of an ordinary dealer in mop rags.

At length we arrived at the bars, and while we were letting them down, Bill shot past us and tore for the house, as if pursued by a thousand devils of Bashan. He flung open the door with a bang, and shouted at the top of his voice:

"Mother, mother! Jim Clark is coming!"

"Is he?" screamed the old woman in reply. "Wal, I declare! I didn't think the saphead knew enough."

Reader, we didn't go in.

A fend in human shape was engaged in planking a sidekick in a certain western city, when a woman in gorgeous apparel stopped near the scene of his labors to chat with a friend. Her train hung over the edge of the last plank he had put in position, and he quietly slid another one alongside of it, so that she was securely spiked it down. The fend then went to dinner.

A rare combination—dollars and sense.

THE DAILY and WEEKLY HERALD has more than double the circulation of any other paper published in Southern California. Business men recognize it accordingly as the best advertising medium South of San Francisco.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 9, 1875.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

The Independents held a meeting in this city last night. It was well attended, and half a dozen common-place speeches were made.

A small shock of an earthquake was felt at Hollister on Sunday.

Five Negro convicts escaped from the Penitentiary at Richmond, Virginia, yesterday morning.

The speech of Major Frank Ganahl, delivered last Saturday evening, will be found in this morning's Herald.

We print this morning a couple of dispatches of interest to Houghton men.

Mr. WINGINTON and Major FRANK GANAH will speak at El Monte on next Saturday afternoon at one o'clock. Major GANAH will also speak with Mr. WINGINTON at Anaheim on the 11th inst. Mr. WINGINTON will address the people of Wilmington on next Saturday evening.

SENATOR MACLAY addressed a large assembly of Democrats in San Bernardino last Saturday evening and from him we learn that the Democracy of that county will give a good account of themselves on the 1st of September. The Senator says the leading Democrats assured him that IRWIN and WINGINTON will carry San Bernardino county by a handsome majority.

THE YOUNG MAN, STEPHEN WHITE, when our Republican friends, Revenue Officer BRIERLEY and General BOUTON, placed on the Independent ticket for District Attorney, says the Herald is incorrect in saying that he is a carpet-bagger of less than a year's residence in the State. It was a mistake, we meant to say that STEPHEN was a carpet-bagger of less than seven months residence in this county. STEPHEN also asserts that his name was placed in the Great Register last March. That may be true, but a gentleman whose business it is to handle the Great Register could not find it there over a week ago.

A Question of Veracity.

In his speech in this city on the 4th inst. Mr. Houghton asserted that Mr. LUTTRELL did not permit him to see the dispatches from the Chamber of Commerce of Los Angeles relative to the proposed change of route of the Southern Pacific Railroad. The statement was not believed, and in order to reach the true state of the case the following message was sent to Mr. LUTTRELL:

LOS ANGELES, August 9th.—To Hon. J. K. Luttrell, Senator.—Houghton stated last night that you pocketed the dispatches from the Chamber of Commerce in relation to the proposed change of route of the Southern Pacific Railroad, and that you did not show them to him.

Answer immediately. T. D. MORT. Mr. LUTTRELL had left home for the Northern part of the State, and the message was some days in reaching him. He however received it and sent the following answer, which speaks for itself, and we call upon Mr. Houghton to rise and explain in his next speech, or else prepare to step down and out.

LOS ANGELES, August 8, 1875. To T. D. Mort, Los Angeles.

If Houghton states that I pocketed dispatches sent by your Chamber of Commerce, he states what he knows to be a base falsehood. Each of every telegram sent to me was sent to the Committee, and used by me in arguments before the Committee, and I showed the several telegrams to Houghton, which is evidenced by his telegraphing an explanation to California. He stated to me that he thought there was something wrong in the bill. Then urged him to protect the settlers of the San Joaquin valley and the people of Los Angeles. He refused.

J. K. LUTTRELL.

Mr. Houghton's Record.

Mr. HOUGHTON, Administration candidate for Congress from this District, has asked the people to judge him by his record and on the findings elect or reject him. We are willing that he shall be tried on his answer to the several indictments preferred against him and we desire in the trial to exclude all testimony that Mr. HOUGHTON himself declines to accept as true. In opening the case we will submit a few interrogatories which we hope and expect he or his friends will answer in the same frank spirit that they are asked. Is not the Pacific coast agent for the Administration furnishing funds to aid in the election of Mr. HOUGHTON? Are not the parties who desire the passage of a bill granting a good sound subsidy to Tom Scott's railroad contributing funds for the same purpose? Did not Mr. HOUGHTON say that unless he carried Los Angeles county by a good majority his defeat was certain? Is it not understood as coming from GORHAM that HOUGHTON and PAGE must be elected at all hazards in order to concentrate the Republican party of California for the Presidential contest of next summer? Is it not understood and talked about among the leaders that HOUGHTON's promises to aid the Tom Scott railroad are so much moonshine—so many promises made to secure votes and never intended to be redeemed? Is not this apparent when it is known that even should he be elected he will be powerless, being as he will but one of a hopeless minority, the House being largely Democratic. Is it not true that his record shows Mr. HOUGHTON to have supported and voted for every extreme radical measure introduced or passed since he has been in Congress? Is it not true that Mr. HOUGHTON voted for the infamous "Force Bill"—a bill which gave the President the power to suspend the writ of habeas corpus in time of peace and to declare, at will, martial law in any State of the Union—a bill which placed the civil arm of the government beneath and at the mercy of the military? Did he not introduce a bill which, had it become a law would have delayed our through railroad communication for years and changed the route of the Southern Pacific Road to the serious injury of Los Angeles Valley? Did he not refuse the right of petition to 20,000 people of San Francisco who petitioned concerning Goat Island? Did he not vote to increase the tax on grape brandy? Has he not been the supporter of every subsidy scheme presented to Congress since he has been a member of that body? Perhaps Mr. HOUGHTON is able to answer many of these questions in the negative. We trust he can but they have presented themselves and we submit them in order that they may be met and denied, or admitted. If all or one-fourth of these questions embody facts, Mr. HOUGHTON is not the man whom the people of Southern California desire shall represent them in Congress. While we are an earnest advocate of railroad progress and would gladly see one or two more iron tracks extending across the continent, we are inclined to accept with many grains of allowance the promises of a man to do so much for a railroad as Mr. HOUGHTON promises TOM SCOTT when we know that should he be elected he and the minority to which he belongs will not have the power to redeem a single promise. We sincerely wish that Mr. HOUGHTON were in or might attain a position which would enable him to redeem every promise made to the friends of the Texas Pacific road, but both he and we know that should he receive every vote in his district, he could not and we doubt if he would try to do it.

NIGHT DISPATCHES.

AN INTERESTING DECISION FOR CIGAR MAKERS.

CONDITION OF THE WOOL MARKET.

[SPECIAL TO THE HERALD.]

EASTERN NEWS.

The Stolen Money.

WASHINGTON, August 9th.—No time is fixed yet for the preliminary examination of Pearson, arrested for the larceny of $47,000 from the Treasury Department.

Ottoman has employed Richard Merriek as counsel, and an effort will be made to have the bail reduced. Ottoman recently made a heavy deposit in a bank in Alexandria, and the officers have gone to secure the money. The employees in the cash room at the Treasury Department have been watched in all their movements since the robbery. The President of the German Savings Bank of Alexandria, where Ottoman has a special deposit, had an interview with Gen. Spinner and Treasurer New, and has consented that the officers shall examine the contents of the package.

Gold and Stocks.

NEW YORK, August 9th.—Gold closed at 113½; money, 1½; Government bonds, steady; Stocks, ditto; Western Union, 81½; Quicksilver, 15½; Pacific Mail, 38½; W. F. & Co., 78; N. Y. Central, 104½; Erie, 14½; Panama, 129; Union Pacific, 72; U. P. Bonds, 101½; C. P., 107½.

Dodge Explains.

NEW YORK, August 8th.—Albert L. Dodge, wholesale dealer in wines and cigars, on Broadway, has failed. His liabilities are $70,000.

The Assignee of Archibald Baxter & Co. stated to-day that the firm's liabilities would, in all probability, foot up $200,000. The amount of available assets cannot yet be ascertained.

Escape of Convicts.

RICHMOND, Va., August 9th.—Five negro convicts escaped from the Penitentiary this morning by sawing the bars off the windows and sealing the outer walls with ropes. A dense fog prevailed at the time, favoring the escape. All of them were serving long terms and two of them for rape.

The Floods in Tennessee.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., August 9th.—The river at this point continues to rise steadily and has risen about an inch since 5 o'clock last evening, but notwithstanding this the outlook is more favorable, owing to the decline above and the report of the officers of the Memphis and Little Rock Railroad that there is little evidence of a flood along the St. Francis, at Meadow Rock and in the bottom below here. This may be accounted for by the fact that all the bayous and most of the lakes were empty, while the rank vegetation in the bottom retarded the flow of the water, and much of it was lost by absorption and evaporation. Unless the danger from the St. Francis increases materially, the damage below here and Helena from that direction will be small and confined to a few plantations.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The Disputed Cargo.

HAVANA, August 9th.—The cargo of the British vessel pursued in Haytian waters by a Spanish gunboat, has been embargoed by the Consul of Spain in Havana, and was taken by a Spanish man-of-war to Havana. The Diario thanks the British Consul General in Hayti for his good offices in the affair.

Collie Absconded.

LONDON, August 9th.—The trial of Alexander and Wm. Collie, on the charge of obtaining large sums from the London and Westminster Bank on false pretenses was brought to a sudden stop this morning by the announcement that Alexander Collie had absconded. His bail was repealed and a warrant issued for his arrest.

Reception of the Prince.

LONDON, August 9th.—Dispatches from Calcutta say that a public meeting has been held there and full arrangements made for the reception of the Prince of Wales.

[SPECIAL TO THE HERALD.]

EASTERN NEWS.

Seizure of a Vessel.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9th.—Saturday night a posse of men from the Sheriff's office in Brooklyn, headed by Under-Sheriff and Chief Deputy Sheriff, proceeded to Martin's Stocks and seized a vessel named Sarah Signet, with all the cargo, grain and crew on board ready to sail. The men, mostly Italians, at first offered resistance, but finally succumbed. A guard of deputy sheriffs was left on board, all armed, after which under sheriff and deputy sheriffs proceeded to Atlantic Docks, and seized the bark Giovani, which was also loaded with corn and grain, men were placed on board her and she too was detained under authority of replevin suit begun in New York Supreme Court by A. E. Kent & Co., against Archibald Baxter & Co. The former firm, it is said, sold the latter firm some $40,000 worth of grain, which was shipped in vessels named but not paid for; the terms of sale, it is alleged, were cash inside the usual number of days' grace, but up to the hour of seizure, the cash had not been forthcoming, hence the detention. It is intimated that several complications are likely to arise out of this seizure.

Shoemakers on a Strike.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9th.—The Central Council of Crispien, or Journeymen Shoemakers, whose strike is now in progress, have made a statement of their position, which is in substance that it is determined to discuss any question they please with their employers; to hold an employer to any agreement made with the Council, and in case of violation to place his shop on the strike and not settle the matter until he pays the expenses of the strike; though we mean not to be aggressive, we shall resist encroachments, not mattering whether it comes from outside foes or inside traitors.

Wheat Ships Seized.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—Two ships laden with grain were seized at the Brooklyn docks, Saturday night, on a suit by A. D. Kent & Co., to recover from the suspended firm of Archibald, Baxter & Co., for $40,000 worth of grain which the former claims to have sold the latter for cash which had not been paid.

Assignee Appointed.

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—Dwight Johnson, President of the Fireman's Fire Insurance Co., has been appointed assignee in the case of Archibald, Baxter & Co., the suspended grain merchants.

About Stamping Cigars.

WASHINGTON, August 9th.—The following letter was sent from the Treasury Department to-day:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, OFFICE OF INTERNAL REVENUE, Washington, D. C., August 9.

To T. J. Hiden, Collector of the Fourth District, Quincy, Ill.:

SIR: I have received your letter of the 3d instant, enclosing a portion of a cigar box on which is stamped the manufacturer's name, collection district, State and number of cigars contained in each box—facts which are required by section 3,399 U. S. Revised Statutes—were burned into each box with a branding iron. This mode of stamping cigar boxes, while clearly in violation of the laws, you do not say to have been adopted with any fraudulent intention, and while you have prohibited the use of the same in your district, you have hesitated about making returns of cigars so stamped. In reply I have to inform you that this mode of stamping, or rather the omission on the part of cigar manufacturers of burning into each box with a branding-iron the facts before stated, is a plain and palpable violation of the revenue statutes, and is deemed to be without excuse or palliation. You are hereby not only authorized, but you are instructed to seize all such illegally marked cigars found in your district, and report such seizure to this office.

(Signed) D. D. PRATT, Comm'r Treasury Dept.

Races at Buffalo.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 9.—The truck to-day was in fine condition, but a stiff breeze was blowing. The attendance was quite large at the 2:24 race. Ashland won the 7th heat taking the first money, Woodruff second, and Quaker Boy third; time, 2:47. In the 2:28 class, $2,000 to first, $1,000 to second, $500 to third and $400 to fourth, the horse Grafton was the favorite, setting two and one against the field. He acted badly, however, all the way through and only escaped being distanced by running. Lucille Weston won the race in three straight heats. Time, 2:24, 2:22 and 2:23. Bella second, Lady Star third, Thomas L. in fourth. In the 2:31 class, $2,500 to first, $750 to second, $400 to third and $300 to fourth. Idol and Kewinsky were the favorites against the field. In the first heat Honest Harry won in 2:25, Jeremiah second, Idol first. Jeremiah, who passed the score first, was set back for running. In the second heat Idol won in 2:26, Honest Harry second and Blue Mare third. Jeremiah and Lewinsky were put back for running. The third heat was won by Honest Harry 2:15, Idol second, Jeremiah third. Lotta was distanced. In the fourth heat Lewinsky won in 2:27, Honest Harry second, Moss Rose third. Jeremiah was distanced for running. In the fifth heat Lewinsky won in 2:28, Idol second, Blue Mare third. In the sixth heat, Moss Rose and Blue Mare having gone to stable under rule, not having won a heat in five in a field of less than eight. Idol won in 2:28, Lewinsky second and Honest Harry third. This was the closest heat of the day. The seventh heat was postponed till 3 P. M. to-morrow. In the 2:30 race, $1,250 to the first horse, $635 to the second, $375 to the third and $550 to the fourth, John W. Hall won in three straight heats. Time, 2:31; 2:34; 2:30. Sir Wm. Wallace was second, Chas. Smith third and Billy Paver fourth. On the finish of the third heat the skulls of the horses Sam and Capt. Smith collided, breaking the wheel of the latter and causing Capt. Smith to run away. His driver's foot was caught fast in the stirrup, but with great presence of mind he slipped his shoe off his foot and escaped uninjured. The horse was soon caught. The meeting closes to-morrow.

Johnson won in 9 minutes, with Brennan about ten yards behind him. The latter having sprained his ankle in jumping over a fence on his way down. Johnson came down from the flagstaff in 34 minutes. Borrowing Money.

Borrowing money upon the installment plan is attended with these advantages: The loan can be repaid in small monthly amounts which insure the interest and part of the principal, so that by the expiration of the term it can be paid without any great inconvenience to the borrower; the rate of interest is generally lower; the expenses of obtaining the money are not so great as in ordinary loans, and if it is borrowed upon good paying property then it often happens that the rents will meet the interest installments and in time pay off the debt.

If one can only see his way clear he is sure not to stumble. No one desires to stumble if he can help it, and the way to avoid a fall in life is to provide yourself with good glasses. You can do this by going to Fisher & Thatchers' Main street. They have about ten thousand dollars worth of material manufactured for the express purpose of aiding people to see their way through the world. They have all kinds and qualities of pebbles and crystals ranging in price from one to twenty dollars per pair. They are put up in order and may be had from the common steel bow to eighteen carat gold. If there is the slightest defect in your sight; if you want light; if you are in darkness; if you want to see well and wish to see well go to Fisher & Thatchers' and get you a pair of pebble glasses.

Don Mateo Keller of Los Angeles deservedly takes high rank among the vinticulturists of the United States. Besides having an extensive correspondence with leading wine-makers in Europe, he is actively engaged in cultivating 120 acres of grapes within the city limits. In these extensive vineyards, besides the usual domestic varieties, he has in successful cultivation 280 varieties of foreign grapes. This enterprise on his part is having its legitimate reward in an improved quality of wine and an increased reputation among dealers in liquors. His establishment on Alameda street, near Aliso, has in store 300,000 gallons of wine of a value, including casks, of $400,000. Some of this wine is over five years old, and all of it is ripening and improving in tone and flavor. We take great pleasure in drawing attention to his two advertisements of wines, brandy and wine-bitters, and recommend dealers in the East as well as on the coast, to give him a trial.

Independent Meeting.

(Written for the Herald.)

At the Independent meeting last night, quite a crowd gathered, though not near so large a one as at the Democratic meeting on Saturday night last.

Dr. Richardson called the meeting to order and read the following list of officers: President, B. C. Whitney; Vice Presidents, Gen. J. M. Baldwin, J. T. Gordon, J. S. Slauson, A. J. King, Col. J. J. Warner, Capt. M. F. Rucker, Robt. Houston and Will D. Gould.

The list was unanimously confirmed by the audience, and the President introduced Mr. Hazard, the Independent candidate for the Assembly.

Mr. Hazard said: Mr. President and Fellow-Citizens—I come before you to-night, not as the exponent of either of the political parties calling for your suffrage, but as the representative of the Independent party. This organization has been stigmatized as the Dolly Varden party, the non-descript party, the party of no-issue, but every free American citizen will acknowledge that it is a party free and independent of the spoils of office. When its principles are fully understood by the people, they will be satisfied and give it a hearty support at the election. The United States has passed through nearly a century of existence—a century never equalled.

From thirteen States the country has grown to thirty-four States and several territories—from 3,000,000 to 40,000,000 in population.

Mr. Hazard then briefly sketched the progress of the country and ended in an argument to show that the only hope of the country was in the Independent party.

Mr. A. Bailey was the next speaker, and in a short speech presented his claims for the suffrages of the people for State Assembly.

Mr. Stephen M. White, Independent candidate for District Attorney, next addressed himself to the masses. The only point he attempted to make was on the HERALD for its statement of his claims to the people's suffrages. He said he was on the Great Register last March, claimed that he was on the Supreme Court list of lawyers, and said he had never been out of the State. He did not say he was on the Great Register now; he did not say he was on the list of attorneys here, and he failed to state which party he had been identified with. However, the HERALD thanks him for his public notice of the party.

Mr. Rodney Hudson replied to him in an elegant speech, replete with logic and full of eloquence. The speaker did full justice to the gentlemanly character of his opponent and made an able and expeditious argument for Democracy. He closed amidst great applause.

Mr. White then took a second shot at Mr. Hudson, claiming that when the anecdotes related by the latter gentleman were taken out of his speech, the remainder made a very fine independent argument. The general opinion of the audience was that Mr. Hudson's remarks had struck home, hence the necessity for Mr. White's reply.

Mr. Bland, an independent candidate for District Attorney, being long called for, presented himself. Mr. Bland has this advantage over Mr. White, that while the latter is the candidate of the Independent party, the former owes no allegiance to any party, but asks the privilege of forwarding for votes on both. He concluded by challenging the other candidates to a joint canvass of the county. He evidently thinks he has a good show of picking up votes, but it is a little hard on White that Bland should run as an independent.

After Mr. Bland retired Mr. Hazard again appeared to answer some allusions made by Hudson. This and other speeches showed that Mr. Hudson must have made some home thrusts that were not related.

After Mr. Hazard's remarks loud calls were made for Col. Peck and others, but there was no response. Mr. Hazard closed the meeting in a few concluding remarks, the band played and the crowd silently stole away.

We find the following in the Kansas, published at Independence, Kansas: "Judge Delong has our thanks for a copy of the Los Angeles HERALD, and also a plat of Santa Monica, a city of magnificent proportions, whose broad and spacious avenues on paper are shaded and perfumed by the orange and morning glory, and echo the busy noise of the commerce carried on between the 'skin-game United States' and all others who can be roped in. Of course the warm and sunny sun still peels away all day long upon the dry and arid sand where stands the palatial hotel, and a mile team follows in the deep sand on the grade of the Bee Line R.
